ing the course of the last wage negotiations incorporated the clause for introduction of Pension Scheme, based on equal contribution by the employers and the employees. (3overnment did not approve these specific pauses and instead directed that in respect of retirement benefits Public Sector Enterprises should continue with existing Contributory Provident Fund and Gratuity.

Government has also decided that individual Public Sector Enterprises may, if they so desire, work out a suitable Annuity Scheme through the Life Insurance Corporation of India, based on purely Voluntary contributions by the employees, through a fund outside the Public Sector Enterprises and without any liability on the public sector enterprises/Government.

(c) and (d) The Annuity Schemes in accordance with the above parameters have already been approved by the Government in respect of the employees of 14 PSEs including those working in SAIL and ONGc.

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF INDUSTRY (DEPARTMENT OF INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT) WITH ADDITIONAL CHARGE OF THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF INDUSTRY (DEPARTMENT OF HEAVY INDUSTRY) (SHRIMATI KRISHNA SAHI): (a) and (b) A comprehensive scheme of employee's participation in management was devised vide M/o Labour resolution No. L-56011/l/83-Desk.I(B), dt. the 30th Dec, 1983 according to which the representation of the workers at shop floor and plant levels would cover different categories of workers such as skilled and unskilled, technical and non-technical including supervisory categories such as Foremen, Chargemen etc. It was also envisaged that both the workers and the managers will get equal representation of five to ten members depending on the size of the work force at shop floor and plant level fora. The mode for representation of workers at all levels of implementation of the scheme would be decided through consensus. As Boards of Directors of public sector undertakings have full autonomy in such matters under the respective Articles of Association, the adoption and implementation of the aforesaid scheme has to be done by individual Boards taking into account the situation and context in which they are operating.
